A Rare Moment the Administration

1969-1970 was a hectic year yet a happy year. The administration battled against slow computers, extended moving dates, a bus strike, and the problems encountered with modular scheduling. Somehow amid the hustle and bustle that predominated the academic year, a dream was born: the new East Bank High School. Principals, counselors, and secretaries combined to make the transition a smooth and happy experience to remember.

The English Department Launches a Non-Graded Program

Sophomores, juniors, and seniors combined forces to battle against a new English program designed to use with modular scheduling. Instead of the standard grade level divisions, the English program was organized into three teaching teams. Each team prepared and taught a separate program geared to the expected needs of the scheduled students. As in other subject areas the English department offered lecture, laboratory and seminar groups for research and discussion.

A Year of Sadness, Tribute and Memories

East Bank High School dedicates the 1970 Kanawhan to Coach Joseph Butta, who died of a heart attack on September 3, 1969.

Mr. Butta was a teacher at EBHS from 1944 until his death. He served as the head coach of baseball, football, and basketball, during these years. Aside from his many coaching duties, he was also a mathematics teacher.

Mr. Butta began coaching baseball in 1948, and since then his teams have won numerous KVC titles and several state titles. These state titles were captured in 1950, 1955, 1959, and 1967. His team finished in second place last year.

The student body and faculty of EB will remember him as a coach, teacher, and friend.

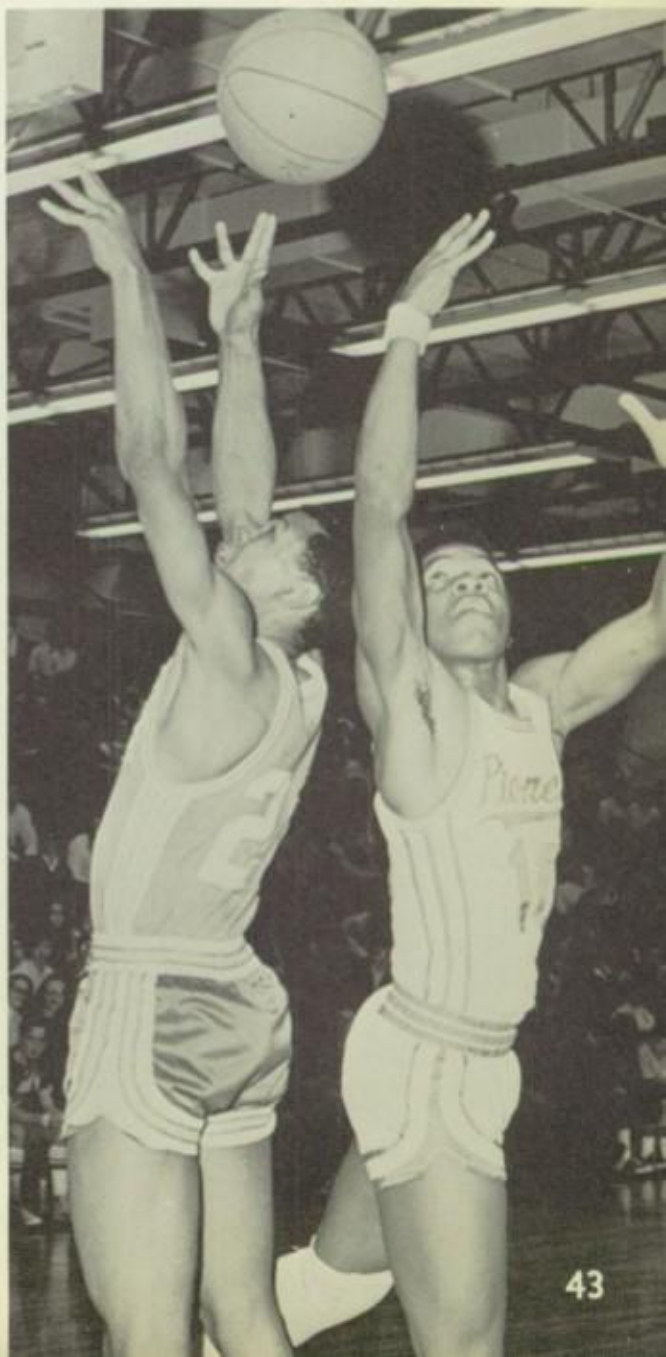
Pioneer's Cagers Build for Tomorrow

Lanny Steed, the KVC leading scorer increases his average.

Sophomore Lester Weems charges through the lane for two points.

East Bank prepares for a victory against the Red Dragons of St. Albans.



Varsity cheerleaders this year are: Donna Keeney, David Jarvis, Karen McCellan, Sandy Sheely, Jack King, Claudia Kelly; head, Cindy Sinozich, and Jan Owsley; asst. head.

"Pioneer Spirit — Let's Hear It!"

The 1969-70 cheerleaders have had a very busy year. During the summer before school began, they were very busy preparing themselves for the many pep assemblies, football, and basketball games they would attend.

The cheerleaders have tried many new ways to inspire good sportsmanship, build enthusiasm, and increase the East Bank students' school spirit. One of the most drastic changes was the addition of the two male cheerleaders, Jack King and David Jarvis, who began cheering during the basketball season.

Pioneer's Wrestlers

This year's wrestling team finished with a dual meet record of 1-6-1 while being led by captain Lynn McGhee. The team strength was in tournaments where the Pioneers came in third in the regional and fourth in the annual Kanawha Valley Conference Christmas Tournament.

Individually Robert Wright placed third in the state and Jesse Harris placed fourth.

Bible Club

The Bible Club is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Blake and Mrs. Cornell.

Because of the switch in schools, the Bible Club has not had many activities this year. Among the activities they did have were Larry Davis and Richard Barker, guest speakers, from the Campbells' Creek Church of the Nazerene.

Officers: Pres. Tom Worley, Vice Pres. Ann Hopkins, Sec-treas. Jan Owsley.

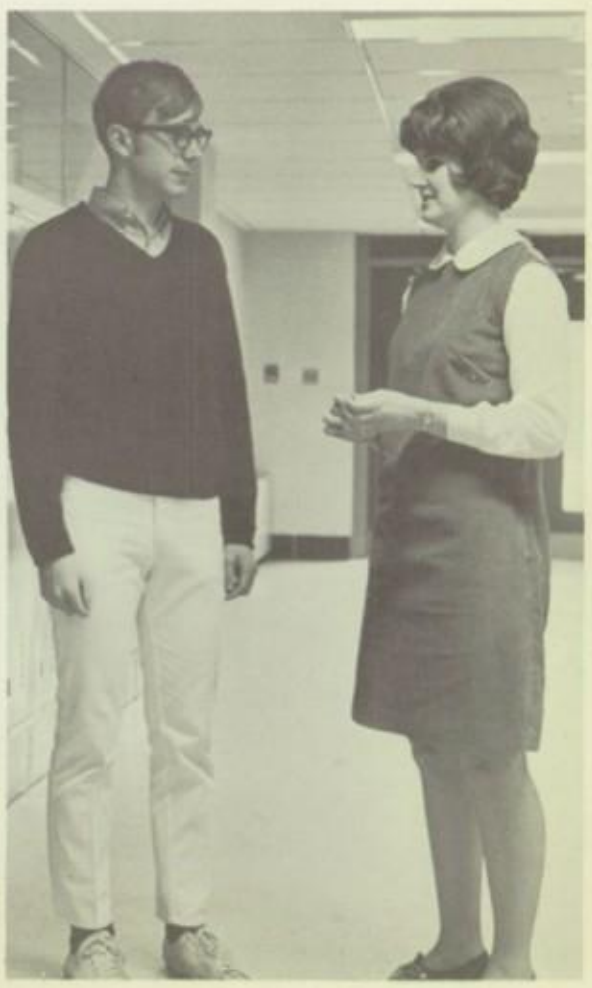
Members: Mrs. Blake, Joe Hardy, Diana Ball, Pam Wolfe, Denise Harris, Susan Hudnall, Cathy O'Neal, Linda Conner, Jean Lively, Jeanne Lake, Susan Hodges, Ann Hopkins, Rosemary Kyle, Phyllis Pell, Greg Lavender, Dennis McNeal, Rodney McClung, June Carnes, Billy Ballingall, Billy McPhail, Kelly McCormick, Lyle Snodgrass, Billy Wilson, and Mrs. Cornell.

The Sponsors of the Bible Club, Mrs. Cleta Blake and Mrs. Evelyn Cornell, stand with officers Ann Hopkins and Tom Worley.

Mrs. Cornell and Jeanne Edwards are speaking about the Bible Club Banquet.

The senior members of the Bible Club are Joyce Wilson, Debbie Glenn, Gracie Elkins, Belinda Hudnall, Jeanne Edwards, Tom Worley, and Ronnie Neal.

Mrs. Blake and Mike Worley are talking about their last club meeting.



F T A

The Future Teachers of America is a club created to urge East Bank students to enter teaching professions. The FTA sponsor is Mrs. Louise Anderson, who helps the members develop character and understanding needed to become a teacher. Members learn opportunities available in education today through activities, such as State and County Conventions. Several of the activities which the FTA members participated in were: serving as hostesses and guides during the Parent-Teacher conferences, bake sales, and a luncheon in May. For one day, each of the members assisted a teacher.

The FTA officers are: Marsue Burroughs, President, Sherry Price, Vice-President, Birdie Leake, Elizabeth Blackstock, Secretaries, and Jeanne Brown, Historian.

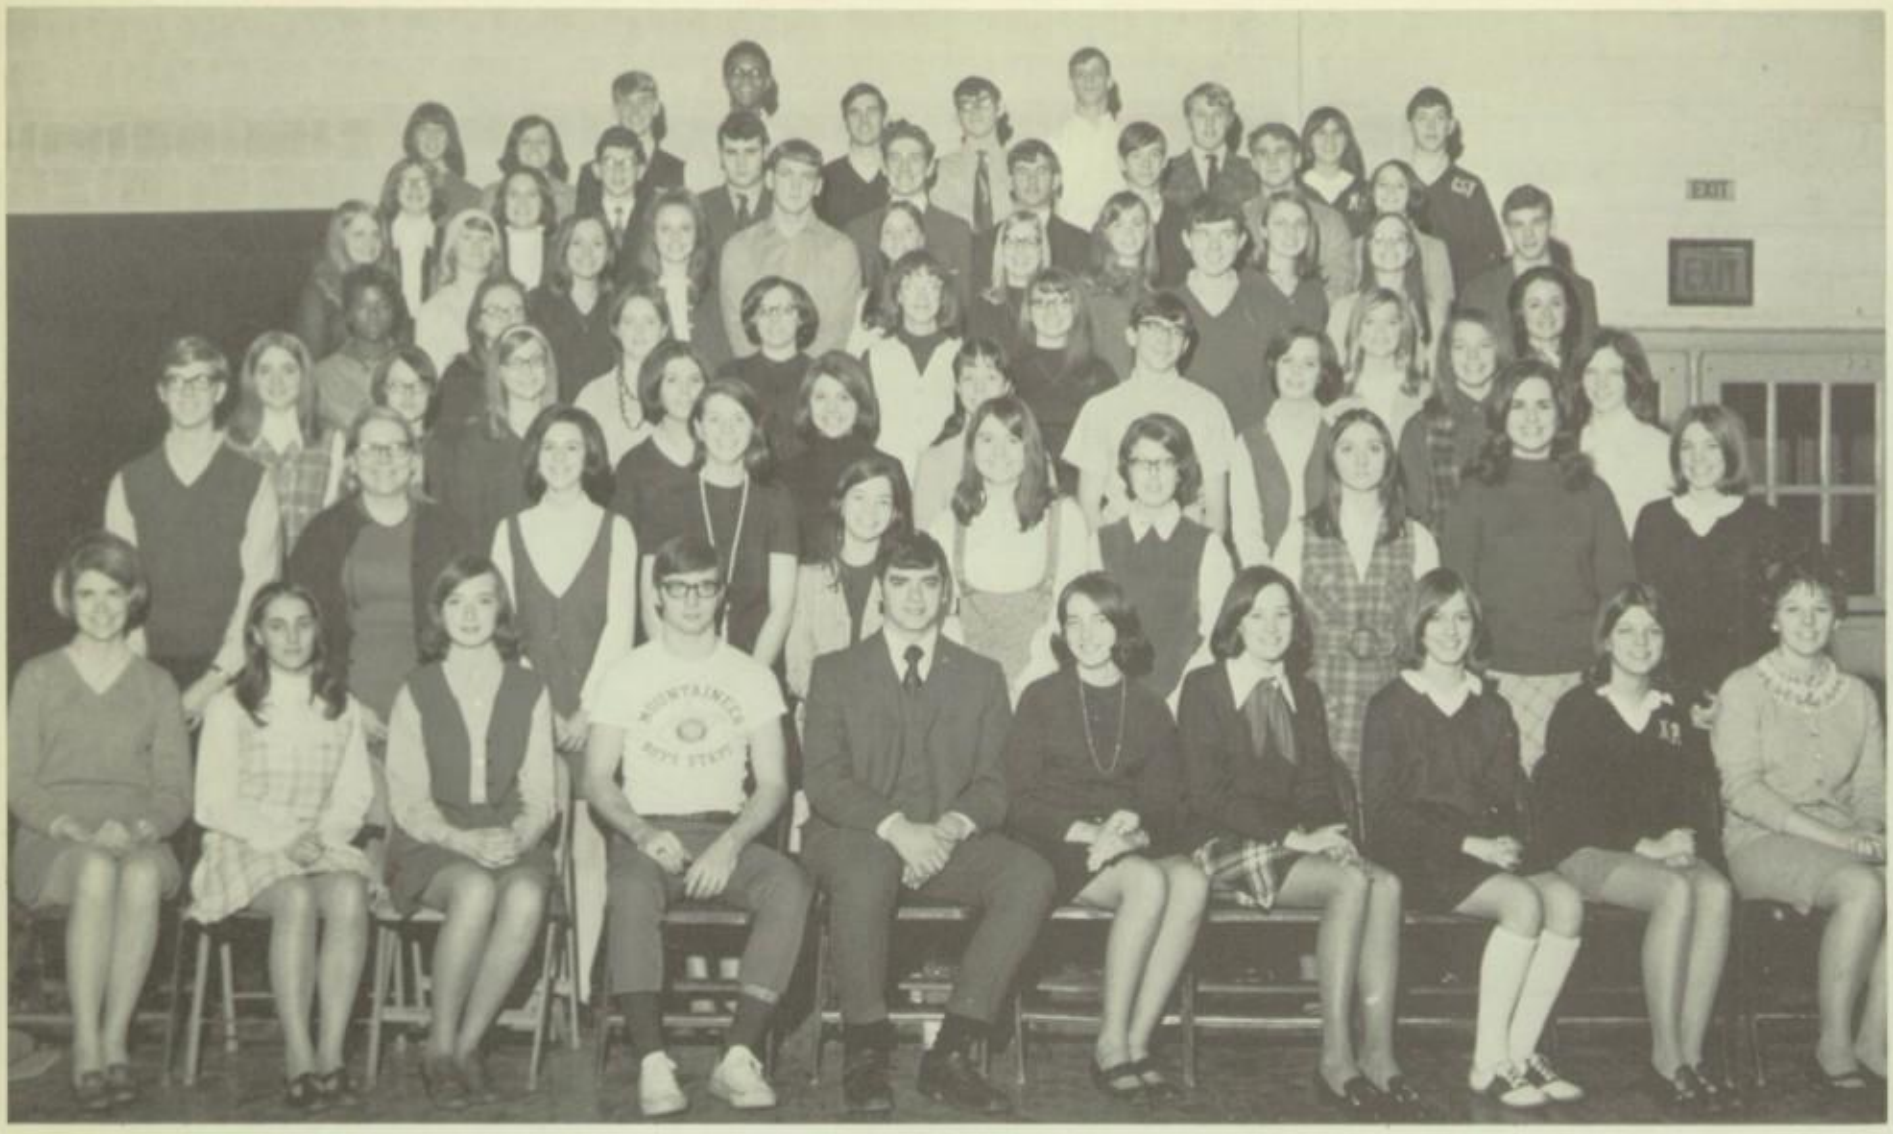
4-H

Officers of the East Bank 4-H Club; Tom Searls, President; James Payne, Vice-President; Vicki Taylor, Secretary; Kenny Meadows, Treasurer; Phyllis Pell, Reporter; Laura Holbrook, Game Leader.

The East Bank 4-H Club is sponsored by Mrs. Hustead, who assists the members with their projects at the monthly meeting. Upon completion of the project, a member is eligible to attend the county and state camps, and is awarded with a certificate according to the quality of his work.

"To Make the Best Better"

The members of the East Bank 4-H Club are: Kenny Meadows, Donna Keeney, Cathy O'Neal, Laura Holbrook, Vicki Taylor, Nancy Bennett, Dennis Meadows, Greg Berry, James Payne, Tom Searls, Kerry Crawford, and Phyllis Pell.



The members of the Student Council have been very active this year. Several of their activities were: A Christmas drive, serving as guides on Parent-Teachers Day, and participating in the dedication of the new East Bank High School.

Student Council

Student Government is the official voice of the students at East Bank High. The function of the group is to bring about better relationships and more cooperation between students and administration. While a student is at East Bank, much of his life is controlled by the council. At best the Student Council strives to create a congenial, cooperative and responsible school.

The Homecoming Committee worked very hard for their dance.

Joyce Wilson, Ester O'Dell, Cathy O'Neal, Mary Vealey, Beth Hoyt, and Betty Cummings served on the Teachers Tea Committee.

The officers of Student Council are David Jarvis, President, John Jacobs, Vice-President, Esther O'Dell, Treasurer, and Betty Cummings, Secretary.

A normal Student Council meeting held at the old East Bank High.

Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors combine to form the Chess Club.

Chess Club

The purpose of the Chess Club is to create interest in this old fascinating game. Those members with more experience give advice to the beginners.

Officers: Mike Johnson, Pres., Robert O'Mara, Treas., Sam Hensley, Vice Pres., and Daniel Kirk, Sec'y.

A member of the Chess Club, Chris Sheppard, is making a move.

Library Club

The officers of the Library Club are: Pres. Peggy Spurlin, Vice Pres. Barry Howerton, and Sec-treas. Linda Brockel.

The main purpose of the Library Club is to offer any help to any student who is in need of help.

There are certain duties required for members. These may include shelving or checking books in and out.

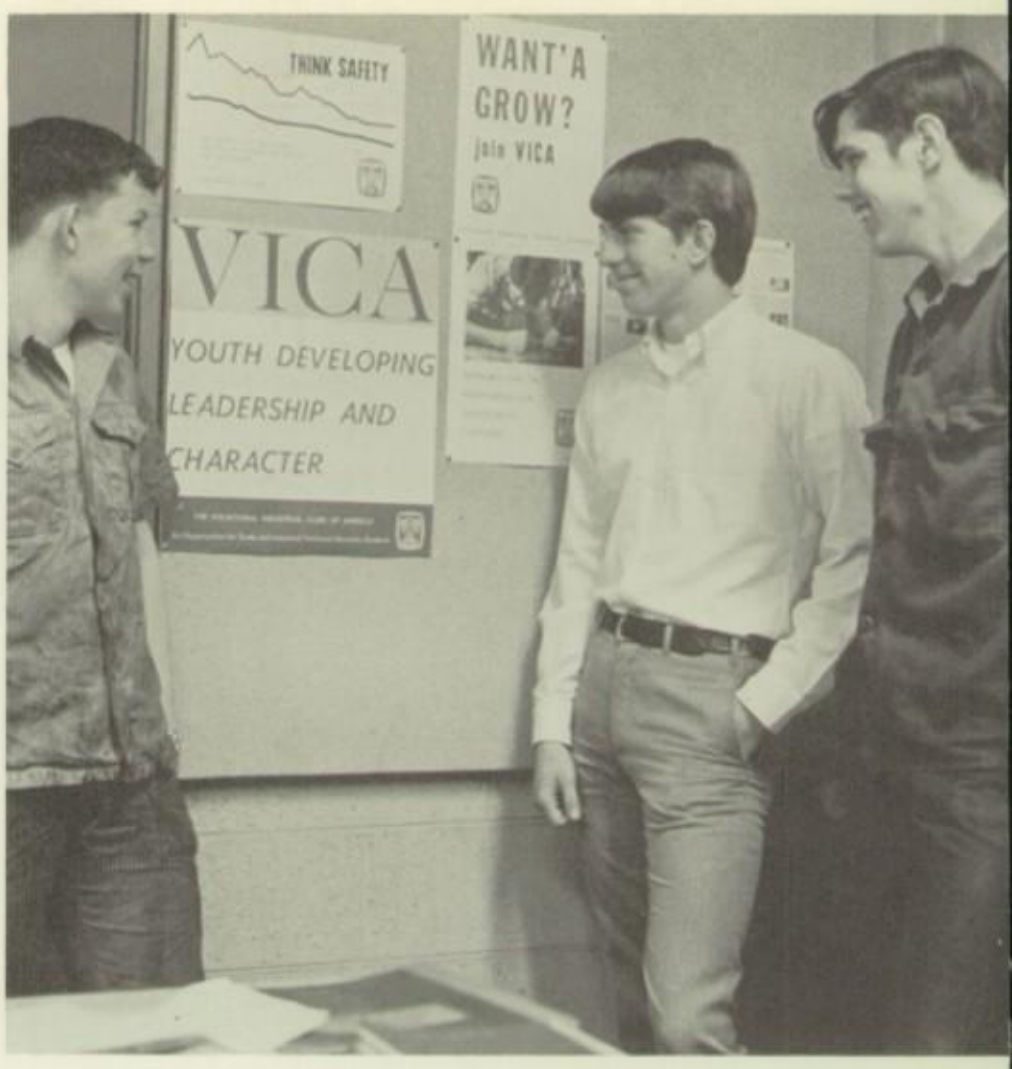
The members of the Library Club are Shirley Payne, Sue Leavit, Connie White, Betty Spaulding, Peggy Spurlin, Robert Young, Karen Canterbury, Vicki Holbrook, Kathy Crowder, Charisse Miller, Elva Pauley, and Barry Howerton.

VICA Builds Men

The East Bank High School Auto Club is a member of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America on both the state and national level. At club meetings, the members practice democracy, develop leadership qualities, and grow into mature responsible citizens.

The school participates in the Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest each year. Each school mechanic team, two seniors from the school, is timed while they find and fix a defect in an automobile.

The Annual Spring Election of the West Virginia Association of VICA at Cedar Lakes, March 6-7, 1970, was attended by two delegates: Ronald Lawence, and Jack Hutchinson, and their sponsor, Mr. Russell.



The officers of the VICA are Ronald Lawerence, David Crouch and Ronnie Campbell.

Underclass members are: Lonny Hodge, Bill Thomas, Pete Rogers, Gary Mullins, Roy Perdue, John Carpenter, Charles Smith David Crouch, Ronnie Campbell, Earl Arthur, and Mr. Russell, sponsor.

"Sure hope this jack doesn't fall!"

"Boy, Gary sure is strong to be holding up that heavy car!"

As the car is fixed, the mind is built!

The upperclass members are Raymond Pomeroy, Jack Hutchinson, John Goodnite, James Hanshaw, Elmer Pough, David Wiley, and Steve Jenkins.

"Does your oil pan need fixin'?"

Interested Students Form Art Club

This year the Art Club has been very active. The club, sponsored by Mr. Robert Curry, meets twice a month so members can create and express themselves. Their activities consist of bake sales, poster contests, and art exhibits in the school display cases.

At right are members of the club at the old East Bank High.

After moving to the new school, the membership nearly doubled.

This year the Red Cross worked hard for their "Nickel Day." The members are Linda Perry, Bonnie Hughes, Star Walker, Harriet Wade, Dora Sheeley, Janet Hutchins, Wanda Seagraves, Bonnie Scott, Karen Baren, Darlene Lusher, Sally Lanham, and Sandy Keiffer.

Red Cross Volunteers

Officers are: Linda Perry, President, Darlene Lusher, Vice-President, Diana Hamilton, Treasurer, and Jr. Wade, Secretary.

History Club

The purpose of the History Club is to make history come alive through programs and activities that cannot be possible during the regular scheduled classes. This is accomplished partly by field trips within and outside the state, guest speakers, travel slides, movies, and student prepared programs.

Jr. members of the History Club.

Senior members of the club are: Debbie Glenn, Judy Williams, Monte Woody, Kathy Crowder, Patty Pennington. Joy Boyd, Sheila Wolfe, Randy Bailey, Elmira Couch, and Linda Gay.

Several members of the club discuss the next order for their donut sale.

Officers of the History Club are: Leon Hudnall, President, Shay Couch, Vice-President; Janet Adkins, Secretary, and Steve O'Dell, Treasurer.

Committee members of the club look at their work with enthusiasm.

Speech Students Create New Club

The Speech Arts and Dramatics society was formed during a unit on parliamentary procedure. The elected officers were: Pres. Jim Clark, Vice-Pres. Bubby Price, Sec. Esther O'Dell and Treas. Debbie Legg.

Speech students began production of the play Our Town, but the play was cut short when six of the cast were chosen to perform in the contest play "Antic Spring." The players were Jack King, Patty Miller, Janie Hudson, Jack Newman, Gary Browning, and Claudia Kelly. Jim Clark filled in as understudy, and Joe Boyd was the stage manager. After winning first place at Morris Harvey College, the play was presented in the State Drama Festival at WVU. Named to the All State Cast were Gary Browning and Claudia Kelly. Pictured are the awards the cast members received.

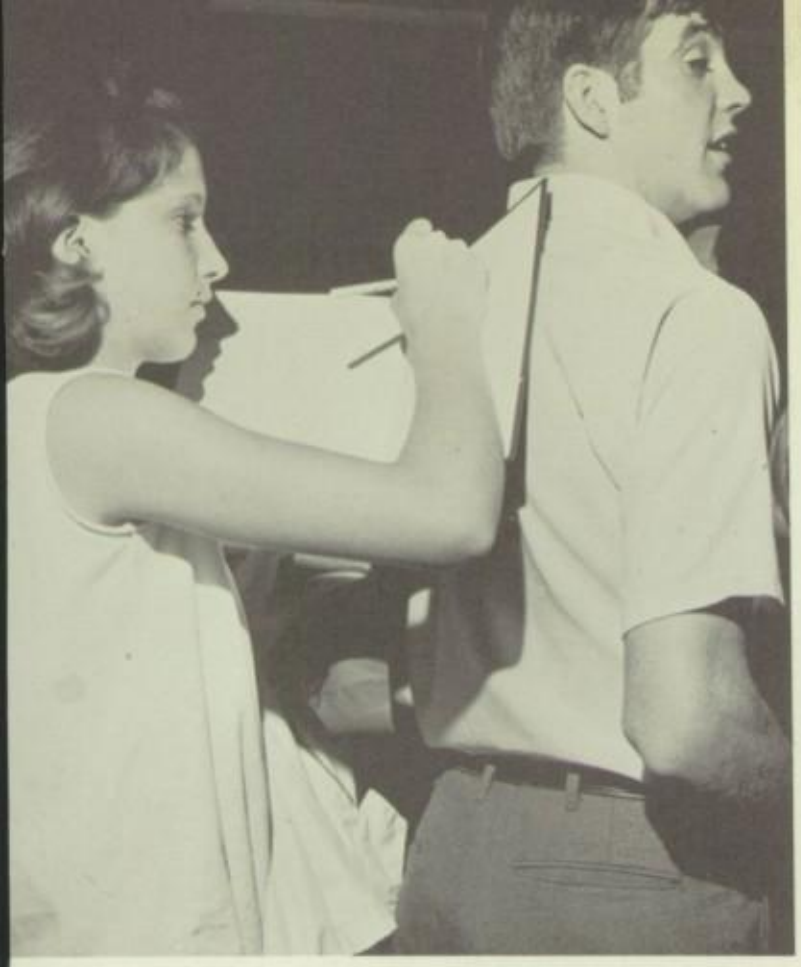
Kanawhan Staff Attains Goal

The Kanawhan Staff has worked diligently this year to produce the 1970 Kanawhan. Due to financial difficulties we were almost unable to produce a yearbook. We worked hard to earn the money and we were able to create this fine yearbook, bigger and better than last year.

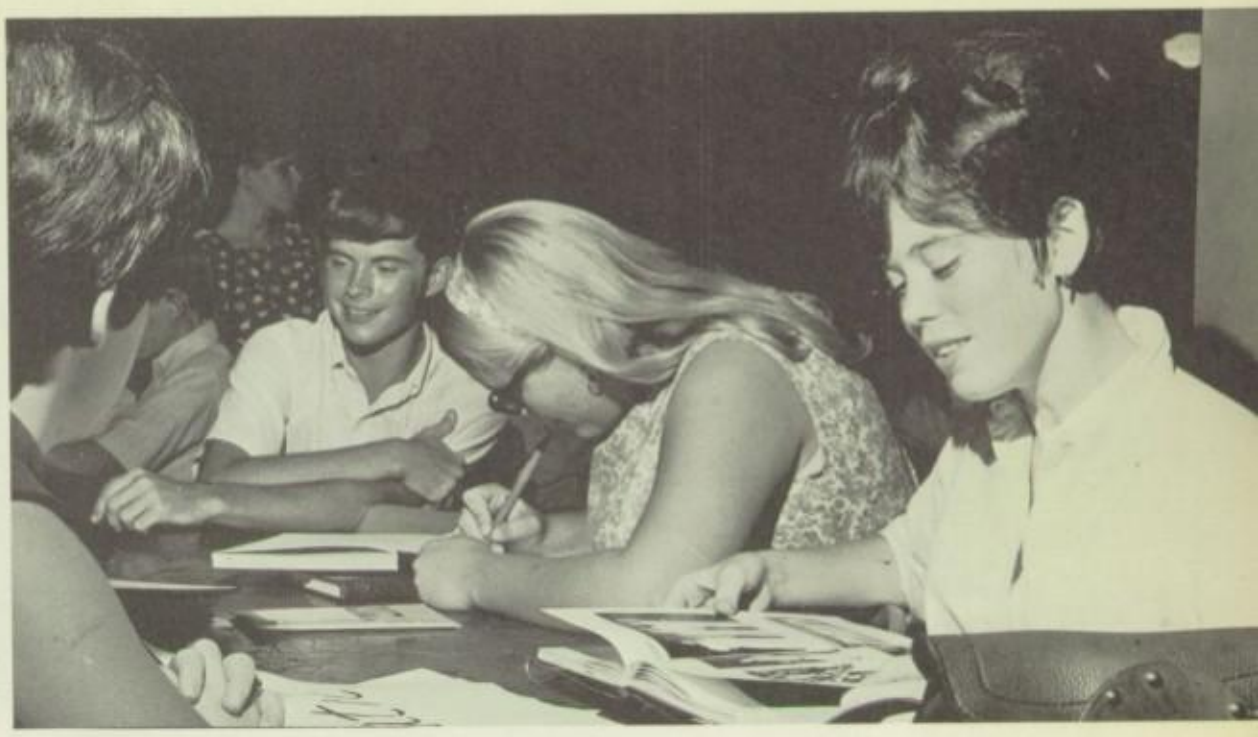
Underclass members of the Kanawhan Staff are Marsha Shelton, Nancy Bennett, and Linda Conner.

This year's editor of the Kanawhan was Gil Walker, assistant editor and business manager was Roberta Leake.

Second year members of the Kanawhan Staff are Connie Searls, Valentina McCormick, and Patty Miller.



Johnny McPhail seems to think that Jeff Hoylman is good for something worthwhile.



Alumni join together with students to sign and look at the excellent 1969 yearbook distributed in September.

First year members of the Kahawhan staff are David Jarvis, Jeannie Brown, Kathy Crowder, Linda Conners, and absent when picture was taken was Nancy Bennett.

Marching Pioneers Capture Titles

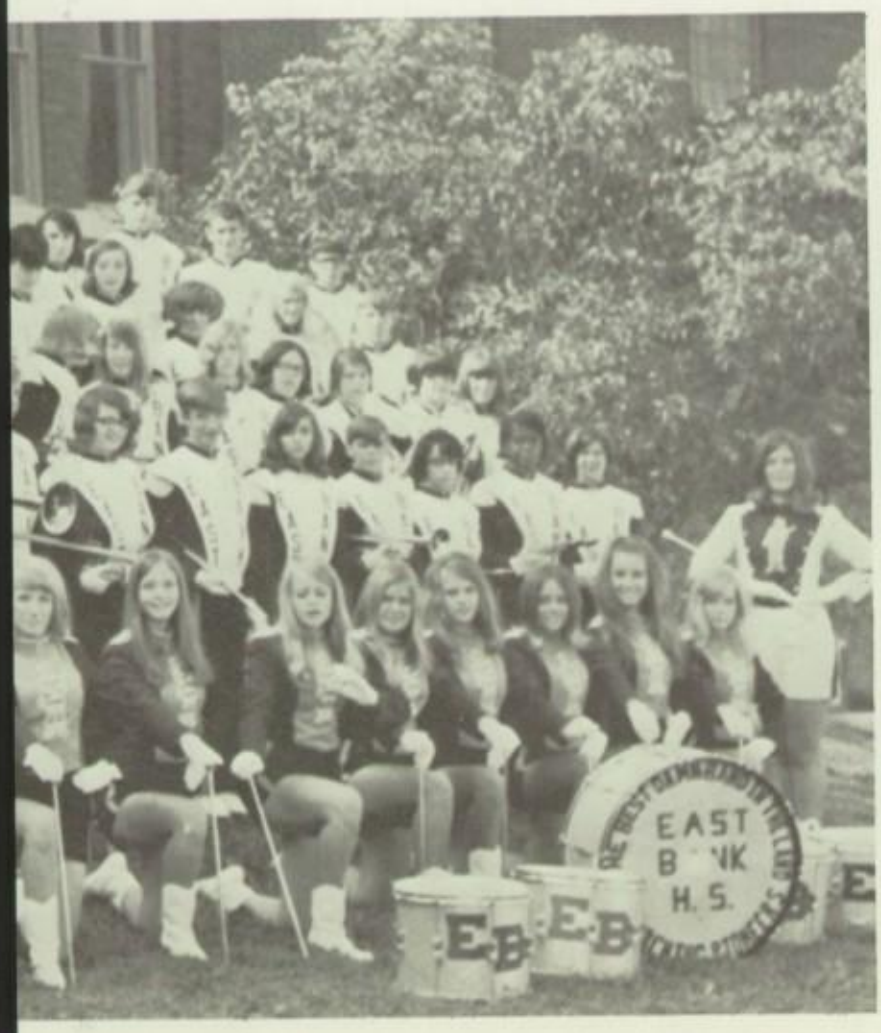
Kathy Stillwell, drum major this year, poses with a big smile.

The East Bank High School Marching Band participated in the Twenty-third Annual Majorette Festival at which the majorette corps was awarded seven trophies. The corps as a whole was awarded third place in corps marching, third place in corps routine, first place for the originality of their novelty routine, and a participation trophy. Kathy Stilwell placed third in the drum major competition and Malinda Shawver was First Runner-up to "Miss Kanawhan Majorette." They also were presented a trophy for being the band who won the most awards in the festival.

The band has traveled to many different places where they have been awarded high ratings, one of these was their trip to Virginia Beach last summer.

The band has definitely had a great year and every East Bank patron is very proud of them.



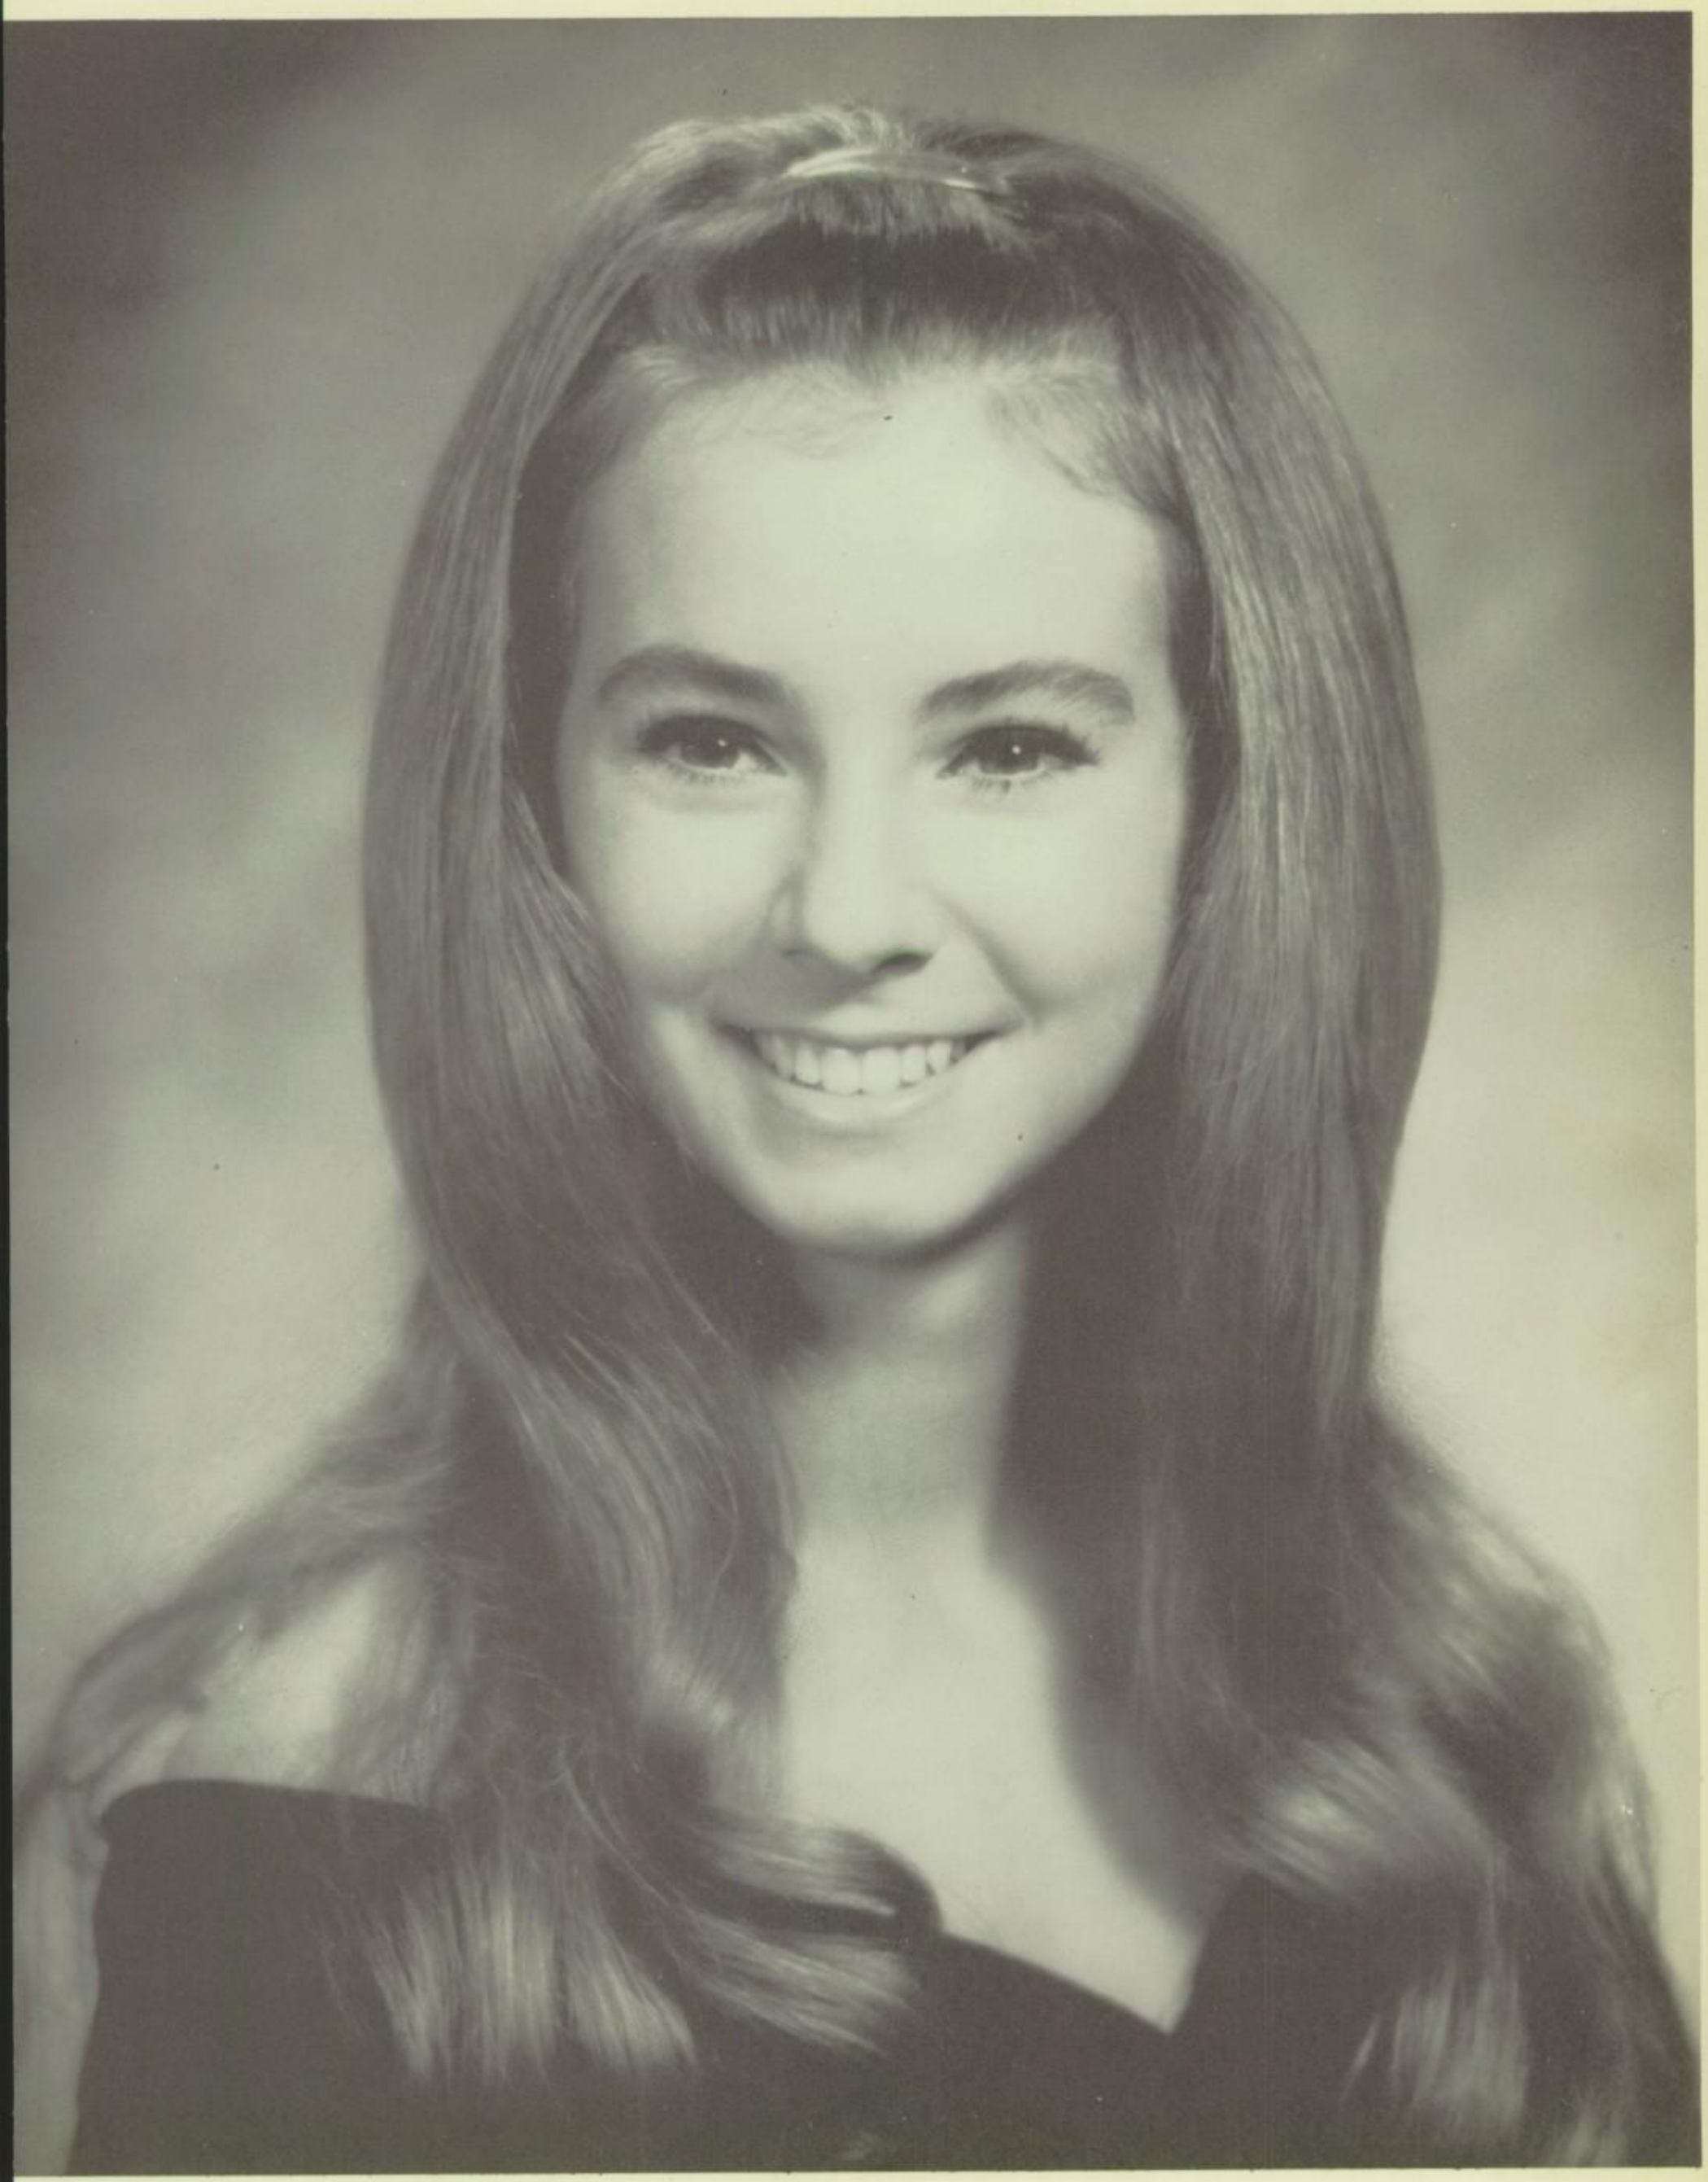
great year and many good performances. They are under the direction of Mr. Tom Reed.

This was the award winning performance of the majorette corps where they danced to "I've Got You Under My Skin" and removed their peelings to "The Stripper."

The Lettermen Select Kathy Crawford as "Miss Kanawhan."

The Lettermen, Jim Pike, Tony Butala, and Gary Pike, selected Kathy Ann Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crawford of Chelyan, as Miss Kanawhan 1970.

Kathy is active as a majorette, a member of the National Honor Society, and is the treasurer of the Senior Senate. After graduation she will attend Marshall University.



First Runner-up
Jeanne Brown

Deborah Jean Brown was chosen first runner-up by the Lettermen.

Jeanne, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ray Brown of Chesapeake, is a member of the Kanawhan staff, FTA, and the 4-H club. This fall she plans to attend college at Marshall University.

Second Runner-up
Diane Hamilton

Miss Diane Hamilton of Stanford, was chosen as the second runner-up this year.

Diane, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Hamilton is an active member of the Red Cross. She plans to be married soon after graduation.

Editors of the Pioneer Post staff are from left to right: Shirley Payne, Nancy Petty, Liz Blackstock and Linda Perry.

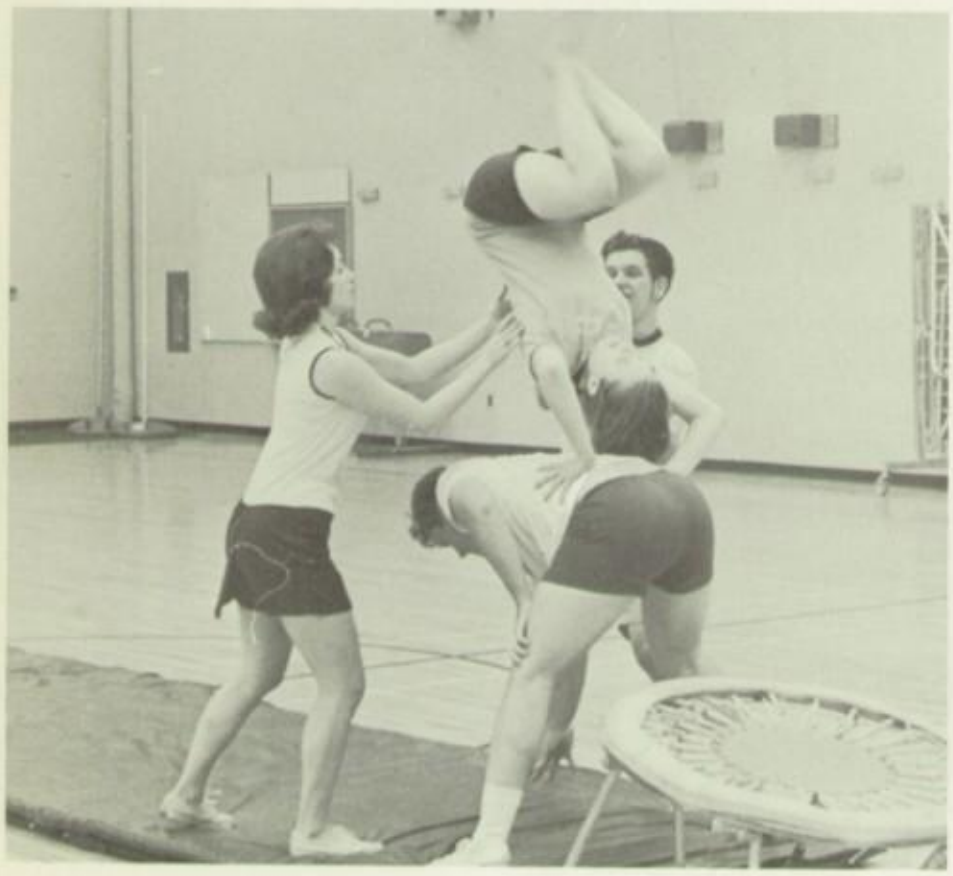
The Pioneer Post has lampooned the students throughout the year, concerning the poor behavior of the students and their bad conduct.

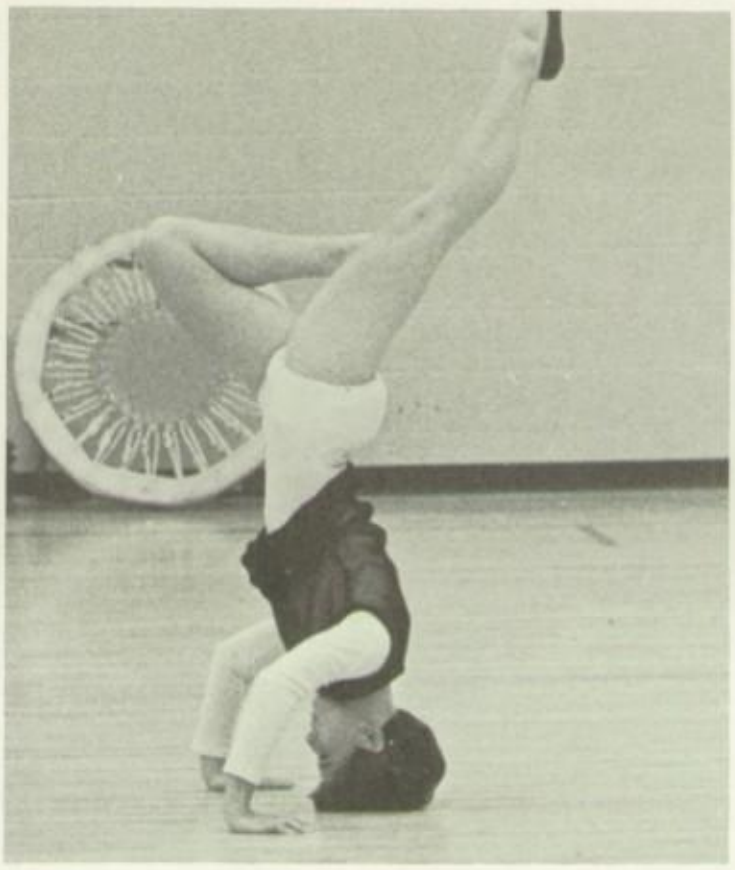
The pioneer Post has achieved high Honors this year. They received third place in the H. G. Halldin High School newspaper contest. They also got a very good rating at Marshall University in the United High School Press Conference.

This years editor is Linda Gay.

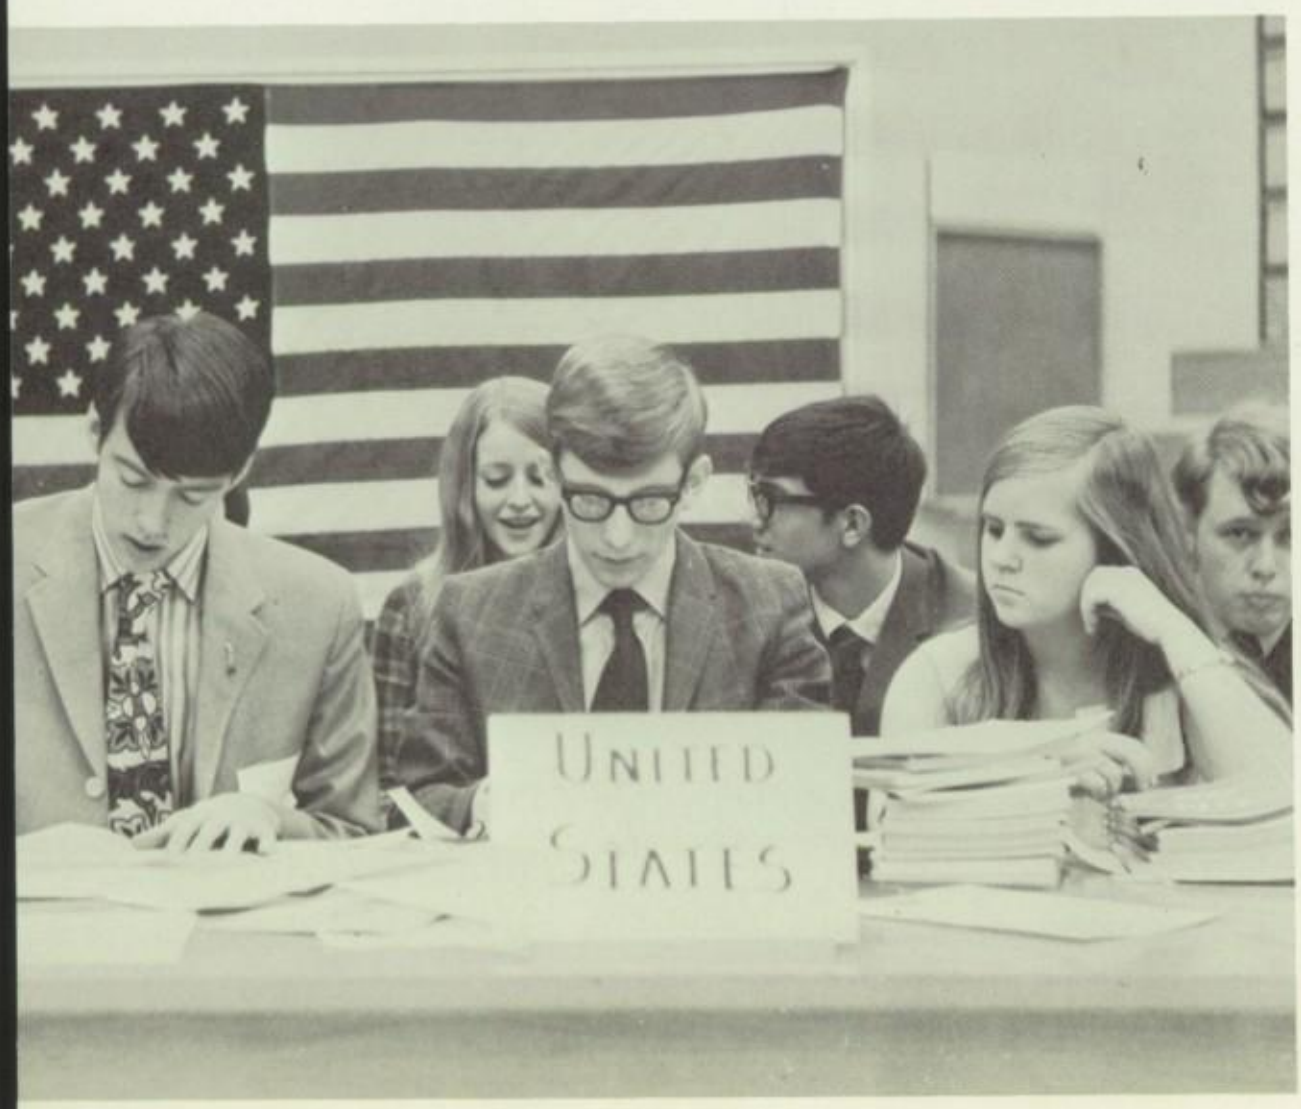
Physical Education Show Demonstrates Achievement

The Gym Show for 1970 was held in the Gym on May 15, 1970. There were many different performances such as the trampoline, balance-beam, movement education, and modern dances.





Model UN Council Holds Meeting at EBHS



Saturday, March 21, 1970, the Model United Nations Security Council met at EBHS. The purpose of the program was to acquaint students with the functions and responsibilities of the United Nations.

Each school was allowed to send four delegates, along with as many as eight research workers, to the meeting. East Bank's delegates were Leon Hudnall, Steve O'Dell, Sam Hensley, and Diana Ball. Research workers were Doug Buckland, Shay Couch, Steve Hess, Esther O'Dell, and Suzanne Sheppard.

A Dream Becomes Reality

The new East Bank High School was dedicated on Sunday, April 26, 1970. This program was attended by distinguished guests, speakers, students, parents, and other interested citizens.

The program consisted of a formal welcome from Mr. Hienbaugh and the EB Band. Following this was the introduction of this year's faculty and the Kanawha County Board of Education members. After a series of speeches, the contractor, Mr. Kenneth Sylvester presented the keys of the school to Mr. Hixenbaugh. Next Congressman John M. Slack presented David Jarvis with an American flag that had flown over the nation's capitol. Mr. Matthew Kinsolving gave the dedication address following a musical presentation given by the East Bank Chorus.

Mrs. Hattie Blair also attended the dedication of the old East Bank High.

On April 10, 1970, the Junior and Senior classes of East Bank High presented a combined variety show due to the lack of participation of the students. The show which was performed in the "Little Theater" attracted many enthusiastic students who came to see the rock groups, the majorettes, and of course to hear the corny jokes. The narrators were Larry Medcalf and Benjie Browning.

Everyone who saw the variety show enjoyed themselves very much as did the performers.

LEFT: Debbie Glenn sang "Both Sides Now" in the Variety Show.
BELOW: No, its not raining, its just the majorettes doing their thing to "Raindrops Keep Falling on My Head."

ABOVE: Jan Owsley, Patty Pennington, and Bev Davis changed the pace of the show to folk music with two songs written by Bev.
LEFT: The Salt and Pepper played three songs in the show, and when finished, they received great applause from their audience.

Roberta Leake was chosen as Yearbook staffer of the Year.

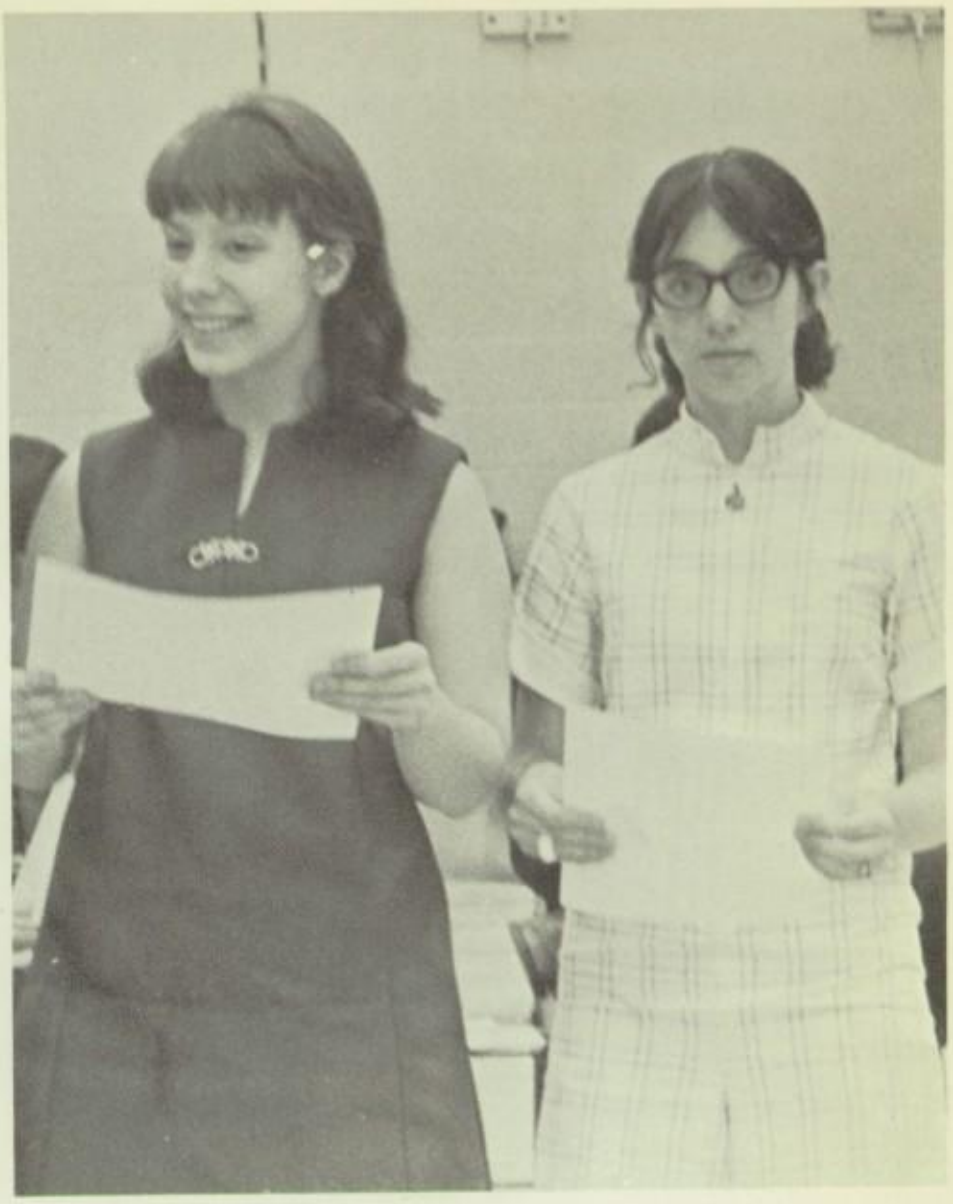
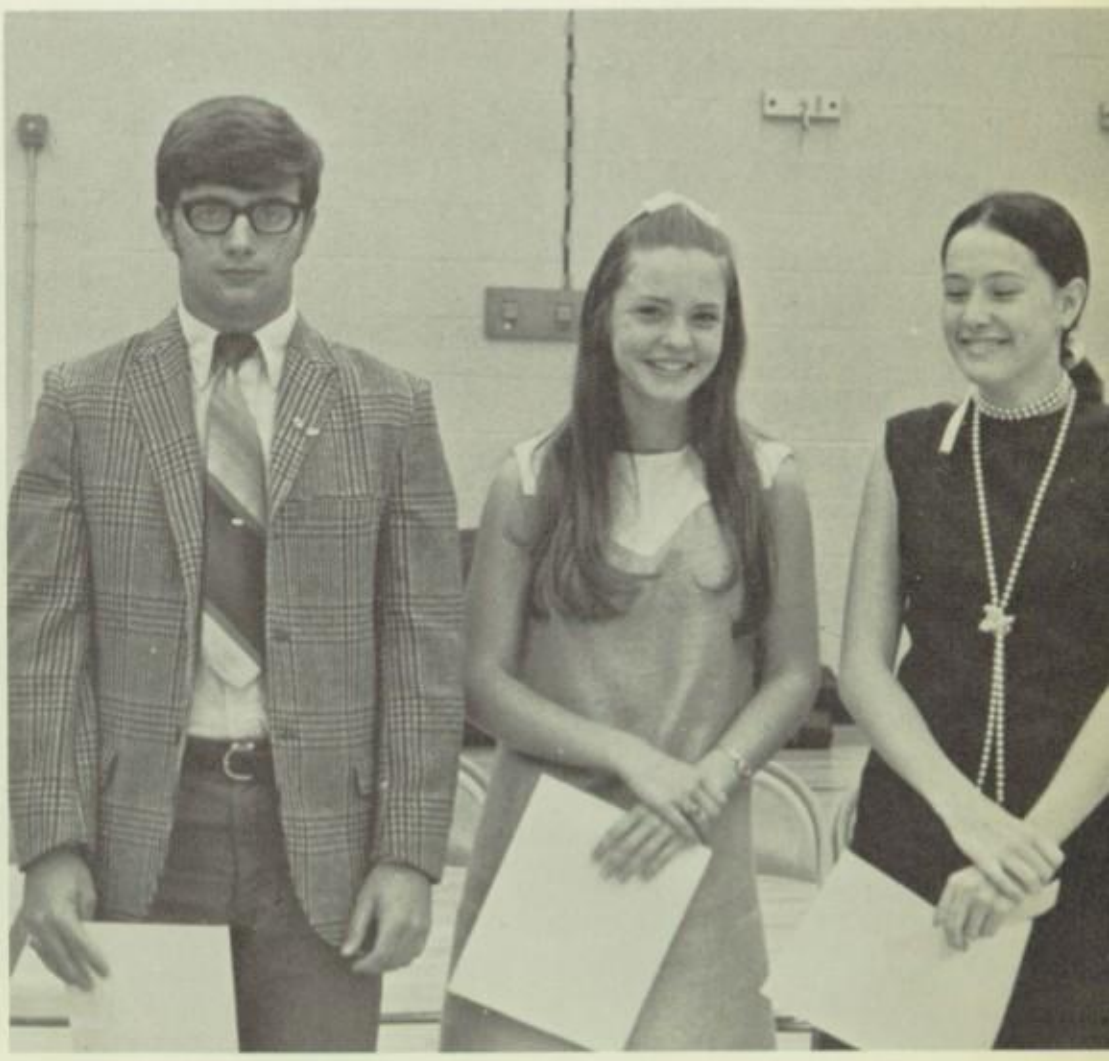
The National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists from East Bank were Linda Gay and Chris Sheppard.



Valedictorian of the senior class was Linda Gay; Janice Owsley was salutatorian.

The American Legion Award was given to David Jarvis and Ruth Davis.



The Outstanding Teenagers of America were David Jarvis, Debbie Legg, and Esther O'Dell.

Senior Banquet

The Class of 1970 held their banquet at the Heart-O-Town on Friday, May 15, 1970.

The program began with a talk by the speaker, Mr. James Sprouse. Next giftorians, Patty Miller and Kathy Crawford presented a few seniors with humorous gifts. After the reading of the class history by Ruth Davis, Sharon Stanley read the Class Song by Philip Campbell. William Price added the closing words followed by Debbie Glenn who sang "Graduation Day." Later a dance was held.

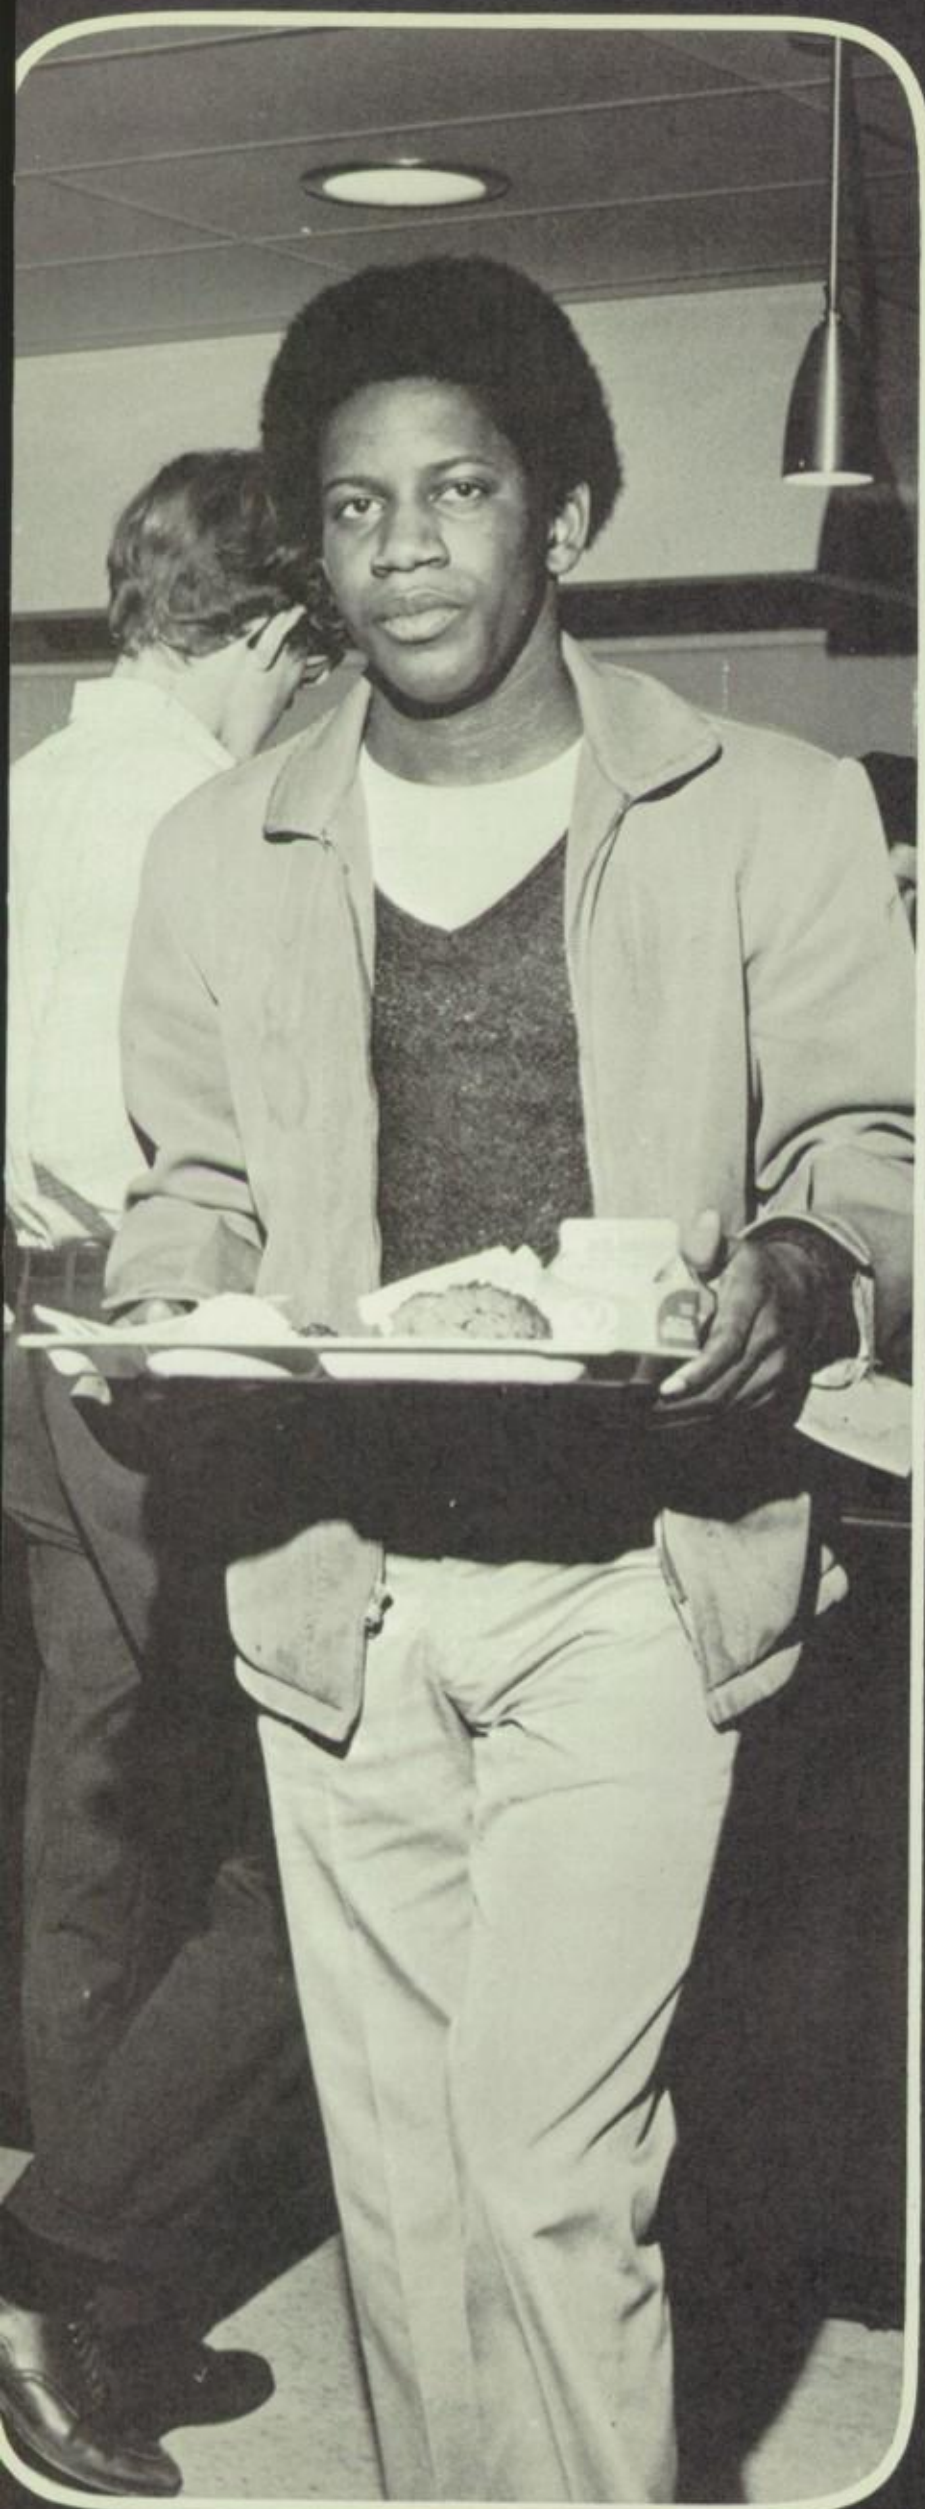
SHOUT REPORT



UNDERCLASSMEN:

A Year of Impressions and New Vibrations

SECTION EDITORS:
Valentina McCormick
Marsha Shelton

Mr. Raymond Dolin is the sponsor of the Sophomore Senate. The senate works together with the best of their ability toward a better Sophomore Class. Each individual must be devoted to it, in order to make this class the best class to ever attend East Bank High.

The members of the senate have many responsibilities. They must also have character and leadership in all things they attempt to do. They represent the Sophomore Class as a whole and are very proud to be a part of it, as each student should be.

The Sophomore Class is standing on the threshold of a bright and promising future, if they will only co-operate together to reach their goal - - - Graduation!

Sophomores Elect Officers and Senate

"Very exciting careers are available for professional and technical people in the coal industry today and in the future. To meet the increasing demand for coal we will need more mining, electrical, mechanical, and civil engineers; also, technical trained people. Co-op programs and scholarships to several colleges are sponsored by our company. Why not pursue one of the exciting careers in coal mining - Contact our Personnel Department for more information."
